

JUNGLE JUMBLE

Deep in the heart of the jungle, Lily the explorer is talking to her friend. But she's got all her verbs in a jumble! Can you help her by writing out the sentences using the correct verb forms?

Lily:

The expedition leader says we
is going to the bat cave next.
I is so excited because I hasn't been there before.

Lily should say:

Lily:

I drew a nice picture of the lion we seen yesterday. He were massive! After a long chase, he caughted his prey.

Lily should say:

Lily:

We is going to record parrots
today. I haven't saw or heard a parrot before because there isn't many of them around where I live.

Lily should say:
