1. There are thirty thousand, four hundred and seventy-four people at a football match.

   What is this number written in figures?

   34,474   30,704   30,474   3,474   30,744

2. Jake has one £2 coin, five 50p coins, three 10p coins and five 5p coins.

   How much money does he have?

3. Which of the shapes is not a quadrilateral?

4. Peaches cost 58p each.

   How much will 9 peaches cost?

5. Here is a list of scores in a spelling test.

   12   14   11   8   14   8   14   12   16

   What is the modal score?

6. Which number lies half-way between 46 and 84?

7. The time on an analogue clock shows 2.45 p.m.

   How would this be written as a 24-hour clock time?

   12:45   02:45   14:45   16:45   08:45

8. Which of these numbers is not a square number?

   25   81   64   48   16