5	Class Six sat and looked at the very big rabbit, and the very big rabbit sat looking right back at Class Six.
6	She was Miss Bennett-sized, and she had glasses like Miss Bennett. She was holding the book Miss Bennett had been reading, so class six knew it had to be her. They just didn't know how she had managed the trick. Everyone cheered the big rabbit.
7	The big rabbit went back to the rabbit book and started reading again. At least she tried to read, but all that came out were squeaks. "Rabbits can't read," Ranjit whispered to Rachel. (100 words)

Book level matching guidance

For children reading with:

- 96%-100% accuracy (4 or less miscues): The child can read this text independently and may be ready for the next colour band for guided reading sessions.
- 90-95% accuracy (5-10 miscues): The child can read this text with guidance and instruction. This is the ideal band for guided reading sessions.
- Below 90% accuracy (11 or more miscues): The child may struggle to maintain an understanding of this text within a guided reading session and may be better suited to a lower band.

Running Record Procedure

- Check that the child is ready and happy to proceed.
- Provide the child with the book. Introduce the book but do not describe the content.
- Explain that you are going to listen and make notes while the child reads to you.
- Allow the child to read. Only interrupt to give a word when the child has made a good attempt to read it. Make a note of strategies used to tackle tricky words.
- After reading, ask the child to tell you about the story, or to answer some questions about the story. Include recall and inference questions.
- Praise the child and thank them.
