5	Sometimes he helped to keep out the cold winds. So the librarian was happy to have Tiger in the library.
6	And Tiger was happy to be in the library. It was cosy off the street. There were soft carpets and chairs to lie on. There were sunny spots to snooze in and he could listen to stories. Sometimes the librarian read stories to the children. Sometimes the children read stories to each other. Some of the children read stories to themselves.
7	Tiger loved stories. He would lie and snooze and dream and the stories would tiptoe into his dreams. Then (100 words) he would add little bits of himself to each story.

Book level matching guidance

For children reading with:

- 96%-100% accuracy (4 or less miscues): The child can read this text independently and may be ready for the next colour band for guided reading sessions.
- 90-95% accuracy (5-10 miscues): The child can read this text with guidance and instruction. This is the ideal band for guided reading sessions.
- Below 90% accuracy (11 or more miscues): The child may struggle to maintain an understanding of this text within a guided reading session and may be better suited to a lower band.

Running Record Procedure

- Check that the child is ready and happy to proceed.
- Provide the child with the book. Introduce the book but do not describe the content.
- Explain that you are going to listen and make notes while the child reads to you.
- Allow the child to read. Only interrupt to give a word when the child has made a good attempt to read it. Make a note of strategies used to tackle tricky words.
- After reading, ask the child to tell you about the story, or to answer some questions about the story. Include recall and inference questions.
- Praise the child and thank them.
