The journey to the zoo last Wensday was a grate sucess, exsept for me having an arguement with my best freind. You'll never beleive what about! The filings in our sanwiches! Still, when we got their we were best mates agen!

It's a good job to, otherwise we wouldn't have enjoyed the animals. We saw some beatiful girrafes and there neigbours, the fasinating gorrillas with there eenormus mussles. My favorites were the artic foxs, the spotted leperds and the miniture horses.

We had dinner in a lovely restrant although the vegetables were a bit under cooked espeshly the potatos! However, the vanila ice-scream was delishus. During the afternoon I was disapointed becuse the temprature dropped and their was an autum storm. Lightening flashed and it realy porred down so we shelterd. The rain soon stopped thogh, but it was nealy as cold as february!

Still, it was an exsellant day witch I will never forget egsept for the stomack ake I had threw eating one of my best frend's samwitches!
