

SPELLING

Name: _____ Class: _____

Be careful! Sometimes one letter can have two sounds, like c in canoe and cereal. Cereal (what you have for breakfast) sounds as if it starts with an s – like serious, but if you look for it among the s words in the dictionary you won't find it.

- A Sort these words out into words that start with a k sound, and words that start with an s sound.

canoe cider car careful cyclist class celebrate cellar cereal cow

k sound

s sound

canoe

cereal

- B Sometimes words sound the same, but are spelled differently. Write the correct word in the gap in the sentence.

new or knew?

The teacher _____ all about his idea.

Would you like a _____ pen?

wear or where?

_____ were you?

What did you _____ to the party?

sea or see?

I didn't _____ you.

We live near the _____.

there or their?

I knocked but he wasn't _____.

Have you seen _____ dog?

write or right?

Did you get it _____?

I've got to _____ a letter.

hear or here?

Did you _____ what I said?

She didn't get _____ till ten o'clock.

too or to?

I get _____ much homework!

I'd like _____ be a singer when I grow up.

- C Which of these can you eat? Tick the right spelling.

leek

leak

meet

meat

serial

cereal

pear

pair

desert

dessert

