

ARCTIC ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

Find the adjectives buried in these snowy sentences, turn them into adverbs by adding the suffix -ly, then use the words to fill in the igloo wall.

The beautiful snowy owl made a quick, mad swoop towards the mouse scurrying in the snow below. The situation was serious for this quiet creature who had a magical air about him. With a frantic swish of his long white tail, he headed for the safety of a hole in the ice and waited for the danger to pass.
