21	A head poked out of a nearby window and Philip and Barry ran away, laughing, and didn't stop running until they got home. London was brilliant, thought Philip, as he climbed the stairs to the flat. Really exciting. Nan was singing "Maybe it's because I'm a Londoner," as she made Swede pie for supper. Philip joined in loudly. He was just going to have to get Mum and Dad to change their minds about moving. Philip got his chance to start his staying-in-London campaign when he went Saturday morning shopping with Mum. "What nice shops," he kept saying. "Streets and (100 words) streets full of them. What a lot of choice."

Book level matching guidance

For children reading with:

- 96% - 100% accuracy (4 or less miscues): The child can read this text independently and may be ready for the next colour band for guided reading sessions
- 90-95% accuracy (5-10 miscues): The child can read this text with guidance and instruction. This is the ideal band for guided reading sessions
- Below 90% accuracy (11 or more miscues): The child may struggle to maintain an understanding of this text within a guided reading session and may be better suited to a lower band

Running Record Procedure

- Check that the child is ready and happy to proceed.
- Provide the child with the book. Introduce the book but do not describe the content.
- Explain that you are going to listen and make notes while the child reads to you.
- Allow the child to read. Only interrupt to give a word when the child has made a good attempt to read it. Make a note of strategies used to tackle tricky words.
- After reading, ask the child to tell you about the story, or to answer some questions about the story. Include recall and inference questions.
- Praise the child and thank them.
