12	For a few days the prince was very careful with his brand new football. He didn't even try to kick it, he just dribbled it around the lawn. All was going well until, one day, the ball rolled down the slope outside the throne room, over the croquet lawn and through the rose garden. Prince Chuck raced after it.
13	"Oh please don't get lost," he called as he ran. But the football just carried on rolling, until it fell with a plop into the lily pond and sank. "Oh no!" shouted the prince. "That was my very last football and (100 words) I didn't even kick it. It's not fair!"

- 96% - 100% accuracy (4 or less miscues): The child can read this text independently and may be ready for the next colour band for guided reading sessions
- 90-95% accuracy (5-10 miscues): The child can read this text with guidance and instruction. This is the ideal band for guided reading sessions
- Below 90% accuracy (11 or more miscues): The child may struggle to maintain an understanding of this text within a guided reading session and may be better suited to a lower band

Running Record Procedure

- Check that the child is ready and happy to proceed.
- Provide the child with the book. Introduce the book but do not describe the content.
- Explain that you are going to listen and make notes while the child reads to you.
- Allow the child to read. Only interrupt to give a word when the child has made a good attempt to read it. Make a note of strategies used to tackle tricky words.
- After reading, ask the child to tell you about the story, or to answer some questions about the story. Include recall and inference questions.
- Praise the child and thank them.
