8	When they got to the museum, Mr Smithers handed out some sheets of paper with questions for the children to answer. Mrs Russell, the school music teacher, was helping Mr Smithers look after the children. She gave them all a pencil to write with. "Now," said Mr Smithers, " before we start our visit, who can tell me something about the Romans?" Hannah Stewart put up her hand. "Yes, Hannah?" said Mr Smithers. "They were ancient, sir," Hannah declared with a smug smile. "They liked fighting battles and conquering people," said Kip Keen. "They were gladiators," said Jason Best. Then (100 words) he and Kip had a sword fight with their pencils

Book level matching guidance

For children reading with:

- 96% - 100% accuracy (4 or less miscues): The child can read this text independently and may be ready for the next colour band for guided reading sessions

- 90-95% accuracy (5-10 miscues): The child can read this text with guidance and instruction. This is the ideal band for guided reading sessions

- Below 90% accuracy (11 or more miscues): The child may struggle to maintain an understanding of this text within a guided reading session and may be better suited to a lower band

Running Record Procedure

- Check that the child is ready and happy to proceed.
- Provide the child with the book. Introduce the book but do not describe the content.
- Explain that you are going to listen and make notes while the child reads to you.
- Allow the child to read. Only interrupt to give a word when the child has made a good attempt to read it. Make a note of strategies used to tackle tricky words.
- After reading, ask the child to tell you about the story, or to answer some questions about the story. Include recall and inference questions.
- Praise the child and thank them.
